

SWIWC WEBINAR

JULY 21, 2020

1:30 PM MST | 2:30 PM MDST

Best Practices in Mobile Advocacy Amid COVID-19

In response to COVID-19 many advocates have had to make a transition to mobile advocacy which has created challenges in providing victim safety, confidentiality, offender accountability and healing.

This webinar will review the following key elements in mobile advocacy:

- Best practices in mobile advocacy
- Safety and protection for victims
- Seeking emergency assistance
- Steps in providing confidentiality

Register here: SWIWC

For more information contact Tania

c: 480-828-2542

e: tania.harvey@swiwc.org

This event is supported by Grant No. 2019-IW-AX-0108 awarded by the Office of Violence Against Women, U.S. Department of Justice. The opinions, findings, conclusions, and recommendations expressed in this program are those of the author(s) and do not necessarily reflect the views of the Department of Justice, Office of Violence Against Women.

Speaker

Memory Dawn Long Chase is an enrolled member of the Standing Rock Sioux Tribe and has been working in the anti-Gender Based Violence Movement since 2013. Prior to her becoming the Case Manager at New Life Center, she was their Lead Mobile Advocate in the Outreach Department. She has also worked for the Arizona Coalition to End Sexual and Domestic Violence in the Administration department. She serves on multiple committees in the community - including the Communities of Color Committee, the Native American Statewide Sexual Assault Task Force, and created the first ever tri-county Mobile Advocacy committee in Arizona. She also has participated in many awareness raising events speaking publicly of her personal journey to this work. Memory Dawn has true passion and dedication to aiding victims of violence stemming from her education, training, and lived experience.

WWW.SWIWC.ORG