

Marlon Fixico is 62 years old and a Southern Cheyenne/Western Seminole Two Spirit elder from Oklahoma. He's a graduate of Haskell Indian Nations University and has served and been employed by a wide variety of American Indian organizations including the BIA, NCAI and the American Indian Science & Engineering Society to name but a few. He was a resident of Washington, DC for 30 years surviving the AIDS epidemic and a witness and participant of the emergence and growth of the Two Spirit movement since the early 80's.